

MY MOTHER

Devices used:

The poet here in this poem has used Imagery.

Imagery is used, more narrowly, to signify only specific descriptions of visible objects and scenes, especially of the description is vivid and particularized.

The images used in the poem by the poet are as follows:

1. "Mother rocking the cradle and singing a song", here it appeals to the ears.
2. "smell of the shiuli". Here it shows the arrival of Goddess Durga.
3. "blue of the distant sky", here it shows the child remembers his mother's gaze.
