

A LETTER TO A FRIEND

GLOSSARY

Dam: a barrier that is built across a river's order to stop the water from flowing, used especially to make a reservoir.

Kabaddi: is a team sport played between two teams of seven players. It is popularly played in the Indian subcontinent.

Gilli-danda: it is a sport originating from the Indian subcontinent played in the rural areas and small towns all over South Asia. It is played with two sticks: a large one called a danda, which is used to hit a smaller one called the gilli.

Rockets: in the shape of a tube that is driven by a stream of gases let out behind it when fuel is burned inside.

Apologise: to say that you are sorry for doing something wrong or causing a problem.

Warrior: a person who fights in a battle or a war.

Fade: to become or to make something paler or less light.

Disgusting: extremely unpleasant.

Unheeded: that is heard, seen or noticed but ignored.

Memorable: special, good or unusual and therefore worth remembering.

Neighbour: a person who lives next to you or near you.

Affection: the feeling of liking or loving somebody, something very much and caring about them.

Unreal: so strange that it is more like a dream than reality.