

A LETTER TO A FRIEND

Questions and Answers:

1. How did Suresh and Ramesh spend their childhood?

Answer: Suresh and Ramesh had a very memorable childhood in Manikonda village. Everyday they used to play in their garden. They used to play in the moonlight and their grandma used to give them fruits and biscuits. Their grandpa used to tell them fairy tales, about princes, warriors and the village boys. They used to play gilli-danda , kabaddi, swim in their local tanks every Sunday. Also, they had happy school days. Both of them used to sit in the same row, did all the work together and took part in the events. They spent good time going for picnic, tours etc. Altogether, they had an enchanting childhood.

2. Why did Ramesh's family move to the city?

Answer: Ramesh's family moved to the city because he got better opportunity there. He started working at Microsoft, a software company, Hyderabad as a Computer Programmer. And his wife works at Dell, Hyderabad as a System Analyst.

3. What change did you observe in Ramesh?

Answer: Ramesh has become quite busier than before. He was happy in his early days but in his city life he isn't much happy. He works like a computer and remains busy the entire day. He misses his childhood days and his family joy.

4. Do you think Ramesh is happy in the city life? Why?

Answer: No, Ramesh isn't happy in the city life.

We can say so as in his letter to Suresh he has mentioned how badly he misses his childhood days. He miss all the spent good childhood days with grandparents and his family. He misses that garden, that local tank where he used to swim every Sunday. Also, he miss his family joy.

5. What made Ramesh write to Suresh?

Answer: Suresh visited Hyderabad but Ramesh couldn't meet him due to his office meeting. Thus, he writes to Suresh to apologise and invites him again to his place.
