

Unit 8C

Introduction:

“The Dead Rat” is a lesson which teaches us how intelligence can lead one person from nowhere to the epitome of success in life.

We see in this lesson how Ratnanka used his intelligence when he was given a dead rat by Yakshadatta as capital for his business.

We would explore in this lesson, the story of Ratnanka’s intelligence and his journey of becoming one of the leading merchants in the city from a poverty-stricken boy.

We shall also see, how Ratnanka has shown his gratitude towards Yakshadatta.

