

The Garden Within

Summary:

The poem "The Garden Within" is a heart warming poem by Celia Berell where she compares the beautiful thoughts of human heart with that of a beautiful garden. She says in every human heart beautiful thought emerges all of a sudden and enriches us. She says when the beautiful thoughts emerges in our heart we smile and that smile is compared to that of flowers in a garden. With the smile in us we can keep others happy too. It is said in the poem that when someone treats us better we smile and our heart gets filled with happiness. It feels like our heart is resting under the shade of a big tree. The beautiful garden in our heart enriches us and our surrounding.

It is then we start to feed our spirit with hopes that nourishes our heart. The seeds of hope starts reaping in the beautiful garden of our heart. The poet says with all her gratitude she would reach her goal. She is thankful to all that petals in her garden that smiles which helps her to reach her goal and touch the island of hers soul. Here, she compares the island to the inner peace of human mind which comes only after nurturing beautiful thoughts.
