

BRINGING UP KARI

Key points:

1st part:

- ❖ Kari, a baby elephant grows up with a boy, the narrator of this story.
- ❖ Kari saves a drowning boy.

2nd part:

- ❖ Kari becomes fond of bananas. So, he started helping himself by stealing bananas.
- ❖ He becomes naughty and starts collecting fruits for himself silently.
- ❖ Later on, when found stealing, he accepts the chiding (to be rebuked or criticized; or being blamed for doing something wrong) he deserves for stealing .
- ❖ Since then, he never stole anything.

3rd part:

- ❖ Animals if given love, can be great friends of human beings.

- ❖ Elephants if taught properly, they can easily learn like a child.
- ❖ Kari, learns the master call.