

BRINGING UP KARI

Objectives/ Morals of the Story:

- ❖ To enable the students learn, animals if dealt with love and care, they can be a great friend to human beings.
- ❖ Animals should never be neglected or treated harshly.
- ❖ Kari, the elephant even after being ponderous and slow, he darted like a hawk to save the narrator from drowning. So, it is clear that bond of love can be stronger not only in humans but between a human and an animal too.
- ❖ Elephants if taught properly, they can learn easily like a child.
- ❖ Most, importantly animals are observant in nature.
- ❖ To inculcate in students about the bond of love between humans and animals.