

BRINGING UP KARI

Characters Explained:

KARI: A five month old baby elephant was given to the narrator to be taken care of. He grew up with his nine year old friend who is also the narrator of this story. We see across the lesson how playful, naughty, sensitive, intelligent Kari was. Kari was not only naughty but also an easy learner. He accepts the criticism whenever he does anything wrong.

NARRATOR / THE YOUNG BOY: A nine year old boy to whom Kari was given when he was five months old. The narrator and Kari was very good friend. Both of them grew together. Throughout the story, the narrator tells about the different activities of Kari.