

Chapter 12

HERON'S FORMULA

ABOUT ALTITUDES OF TRIANGLES:

NOTE:

- Length of the longest altitude is the perpendicular distance from the opposite vertex to the smallest side of a triangle.
- Length of the smallest altitude is the perpendicular distance from the opposite vertex to the longest side of triangle.

